Black eyes

Life is a hard struggle for most all of us, and the least we can do is to wish each other well, and if we fail in this, we are total failures.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the voters of Hancock County:

At the solicitation of so many of the good citizens, both Democrats and Republicans, I have decided to become a candidate for Sheriff of Hancock County, and in view of the fact that it will be impossible for me to see all of the voters in the short time in which I have to canvass the county, I take this mode of relating to you through the columns of the News the platform upon which I stand and base my hopes of election.

I am a Democrat in principal but often vote for the Republican when I believe him to be the most suitable man for the office to which he aspires, and by so doing I feel that any Republican can support me on the same principal.

I am a believer in the enforcement of the laws without fear, favor or affection and believe in same being executed with cool, sound and firm judgement, to which I pledge myself to do if elected. I do not believe in being too hasty but, do believe in being diligent and executing the law without delay.

The friends of my opponent are trying to poison the minds of the voters against me by telling that I am being run by the moonshiners and boot-leggers and that I will cater to them and shield and protect them while they are trampling the law under their feet. To this I wish to say that it is as damnable a lie as ever fell from the lips of man, for if I am elected I shall not brake or bend my oath to protect either a friend or a foe.

But I will appreciate the support of every prohibition and anti-prohibition alike and shall treat them all with kindness and courtesy and will protect them both alike in executing the law when opportunity permits.

If you want a man who will enforce the law without fear, favor or affection, vote for me. If you want a man whom his supporters are afraid to let talk, and who will suffer himself to be tongue-tied during his candidacy vote for some other man.

I believe in free speech and I am not tongue-tied, I have no strings on me and belong to no ring or clique. If my platform suits you I will appreciate your support.

Thank You.

There was a picnic and a race at New Hope Saturday. The race was between M. C. Odom and Mrs. Maria Seal, Mrs. Seal won the race, Covey ran about like a big fat drake, the race reminds us of a little piece of poetry we used to hear about the hog and sheep going to the pasture:

The sheep said to the hog, Why don't you walk a little faster, Said the hog: My legs are so short and the road is so deep, That I can't walk as fast as sheep.

In this cause it appearing by affidavit that the defendant, Henry Wilson, is justly indebted to the plaintiff, and is a non-resident of the State, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served on him, and an original attachment having been levied on his property and returned to me, it is therefore ordered that publication be made in The Sneedville News a weekly newspaper published in Sneedville, Hancock County, Tenn., for four consecutive weeks, commanding the said Henry Wilson to appear before me at my office in Sneedville, on the 22nd day of July 1922, and make defense to said suit, or it will be proceeded ex parte.

I hope to see all or as many of the voters of the District between now and the primary, but if I should fail to see any voter it will be for the lack of time to do so, and I ask your help just the same.

The Democratic Primary Election Board for Hancock County, composed of J. Willis Chairman, A. B. Parkey Secretary, Geo. A. Williams and J. C. Horner was transacting business in the interest of the Democratic party here Monday.

Hon. Alf Taylor Drinnon, was among the visitors, is Sneedville Monday and announced his candidacy for the lower House in a speech to a large crowd in the Court-house. Mr. Drinnon is the present member of the House, having been elected and served during the last session where he was made floor leader for the republicans and as such handled all administration measures for Governor Alf Taylor. Mr. Drinnon formerly lived in this county and is perhaps the best known man in the county and will carry the county by the largest majority ever given any candidate. We are all for Taylor regardless of local or congressional fights.

Lets all get behind our former citizen. He repealed the dog law, voted against the Dorch law, against making women pay poll tax, voted against the eight percent law and says if re-elected he will introduce a bill to repeal the dorch law and relieve women from paying poll tax. Mr. Drinnon was the only man in the legislature to introduce a bill to repeal the present tax law which the farmers are so strongly opposed to. Drinnon is the man for Hancock.

W. B. Ellison, Mayor of Johnson City and candidate for Congress in the first District was in Sneedville today and spoke to crowded court house in the interest of his candidacy, the court house was filled to overflowing and the Mayor's speech was well listened to by the large crowd.

The Republicans of Hancock county organized for Mayor Ellison for Congress, J. R. Nichols of Kyles Ford is Ellison's manager for the county, considerable enthusiasm is manifest in the county as a result of Mr. Ellison's visit to this county, and the perfecting of a live organization for him.

Mr. Nichols is a well known republican of Hancock county, and was for many years in the Postal service and is a well known lawyer and farmer of Hancock county.

DEMOCRATS ENDORSE JUDGE MIMS

At an enthusiastic meeting of the county Democratic executive committee held at the court house in Newport, Friday, June 2, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, at the Democratic primary election to be held August 3rd, 1922, two members of the Democratic executive committee are to be elected in each congressional district of the state.

And whereas, our county has never had a member of said committee, and feeling that the time has come when we are entitled to membership on said committee, and having learned that Judge W. O. Mims of our county, in response to numerous requests coming from various parts of the district, has become a candidate and qualified so that he can be voted for in said election for one of said places, we the Democratic Executive Committee of Hancock county, in meeting duly called, recalling the long party service of Judge Mims, his untiring work throughout years for the party, without reward and recognizing his superior qualification for said position, we hereby heartily endorse his candidacy for said position, and commended him to the Democrats of the First congressional district and call upon them to give him their support. His election will mean that nothing will be left undone upon his part to redeem Tennessee in November and to restore her to the Democratic column, where she rightfully belongs.

This June 2nd, 1922. A true copy, attest:

T. N. HUFF, Chairman.
T. B. CAMPBELL, Secretary.
